

Cultural Resources

Experts in navigating the complex cultural resources regulatory process.

A Team of Experts

WestLand provides expertise in prehistoric cultures of the American West, mining history, cultural landscape studies, artifact analysis, and archival research. With a top-notch OSHA-compliant laboratory, support staff, and financial resources to produce the highest standard of archaeological research, our robust team will combine best practices with innovative approaches to ensure the project is completed responsibly, efficiently, and to satisfaction.

OUR SERVICES

Cultural Resources
Engineering
Environmental
GIS
Landscape Architecture

OUR SERVICES

Archaeology

Due diligence research for land acquisition projects

Class I record reviews, Class III archaeological surveys

Tribal monitor surveys to facilitate Section 106 consultation

Cultural landscape studies

Agency and tribal consultation support

Archaeological testing & data recovery

Development of data recovery plans and historic properties treatment plans

Tribal Monitoring

Tribal perspectives and surveys

Tribal engagement

Tribal perspectives on Threatened and Endangered (T&E) species surveys

Identification of culturally important plants

Tribal Consult Presentations

Historical Preservation

National Register of Historic Places nominations

Determination of eligibility evaluations

Historic context studies

Historic American Buildings Survey

American Engineering Record Survey

Historic American Landscape Survey

Architectural surveys

Lab Services

Artifact analysis

Curation

Repatriation

